The AstroBen Collection Whitepaper (AST)

1. Introduction

1.1 Project Description The AstroBen Collection is a meticulously curated collection of 25,000 unique digital artworks represented as ERC-721 non-fungible tokens (NFTs) on the Ethereum blockchain. Each AstroBen token encapsulates a visually stunning and conceptually profound piece of art, merging elements of fantasy and space exploration.

1.2 Project Team The visionary behind The AstroBen Collection is Charlie, an esteemed artist renowned for their imaginative creations and expertise in the NFT space. With a deep passion for art and technology, Charlie leads a talented team of developers, designers, and art enthusiasts in bringing the vision of The AstroBen Collection to life.

2. Technology

2.1 Ethereum Blockchain The AstroBen Collection leverages the robustness and security of the Ethereum blockchain, a proven and widely adopted decentralized platform. By utilizing Ethereum's smart contract capabilities, each AstroBen token is uniquely identifiable, allowing for secure ownership and provable scarcity.

2.2 ERC-721 Standard The AstroBen Collection adheres to the ERC-721 standard, providing non-fungible characteristics to each token. This standard ensures that every AstroBen artwork is distinct, indivisible, and irreplaceable, providing collectors with an exclusive and one-of-a-kind ownership experience.

3. Token Distribution

3.1 Total Supply: 25,000 AstroBen Tokens Collection is limited to a total supply of 25,000 tokens, ensuring scarcity and preserving the value of each artwork. This finite supply reinforces the exclusivity and collectibility of AstroBen tokens within the NFT market.

3.2 Minting Date: 21st June 2023 On the milestone date of 21st June 2023, the minting process for AstroBen tokens will commence, marking the official launch of the collection. This highly anticipated event will be a significant moment for collectors, art enthusiasts, and the broader community.

4. Pre-Sale Phase

4.1 Start Time: 6:00 UTC The AstroBen Collection offers a pre-sale phase to provide early supporters with an opportunity to acquire tokens at a discounted price. The pre-sale will commence promptly at 6:00 UTC, allowing dedicated collectors to secure their AstroBen tokens before the public sale.

4.2 Price: 0.005 ETH per AstroBen Token During the pre-sale phase, each AstroBen token will be available at a price of 0.005 ETH. This special pricing demonstrates our appreciation for the early adopters and their belief in the artistic value of the collection.

5. Public Sale Phase

5.1 Start Time: 9:00 UTC Following the conclusion of the pre-sale phase, the public sale will commence at 9:00 UTC. This phase opens the doors to a wider audience, enabling individuals from around the world to participate in owning an AstroBen token.

5.2 Price: 0.01 ETH per AstroBen Token During the public sale phase, the price for each AstroBen token will be set at 0.01 ETH. This represents the regular sale price and offers an opportunity for a broader community to become part of The AstroBen Collection.

6. Token Utility

6.1 AST Token Designation The native token of The AstroBen Collection is denoted as "AST." AST serves as the internal currency within the AstroBen ecosystem, enabling token holders to participate in various community activities, engage with exclusive content, and unlock additional benefits.

6.2 Use Cases and Benefits of AST Token AST token holders will enjoy exclusive privileges such as early access to future artwork releases, participation in community events and auctions, and the ability to shape the future direction of the collection through governance mechanisms. AST tokens will unlock a world of possibilities and foster a thriving community of passionate collectors and art enthusiasts.

7. Roadmap

7.1 Development Timeline The AstroBen Collection follows a well-defined roadmap, encompassing ongoing development and enhancement of the platform. We are committed to continually refining the user experience, introducing new features, and expanding the collection's reach through strategic collaborations with prominent artists and partnerships within the NFT ecosystem.

8. Token Economics

8.1 Tokenomics Overview The AstroBen Collection has carefully designed token economics to ensure the longevity and value appreciation of the AST token. By maintaining a limited supply of 25,000 tokens and fostering a vibrant community, we aim to create a sustainable ecosystem that rewards early adopters and dedicated supporters.

8.2 Scarcity and Rarity of AstroBen Tokens The scarcity of AstroBen tokens is a foundational aspect of their value proposition. As a collector, owning an AstroBen token means possessing a truly unique piece of digital art that cannot be replicated or reproduced. The rarity of these tokens increases their desirability and potential for long-term appreciation.

9. Community Engagement

9.1 Social Media Channels The AstroBen Collection actively engages with its community through various social media channels, including Twitter, Discord, and Telegram. These platforms serve as hubs for discussions, announcements, and updates, providing a space for collectors and enthusiasts to connect, share their experiences, and participate in exclusive events.

9.2 Telegram Group Join our Telegram group to engage in lively discussions, connect with fellow collectors, and stay updated with the latest news and announcements related to The AstroBen Collection.
